About the Role:

We're looking for a Technical Content Writer who can turn complex ideas into compelling stories via writing and pitch deck creation for C-Suite. The ideal candidate will be skilled in content writing, presentation design, and AI-assisted content creation for marketing and thought leadership initiatives.

Responsibilities
Key Responsibilities:

- Create clear, engaging, and impactful written content for blogs, decks, campaigns, and internal communications.
- Design professional, visually appealing PowerPoint presentations for leadership, marketing, and client engagements.
- Leverage AI tools to enhance content quality, efficiency, and creativity.
- Collaborate with cross-functional teams to maintain brand voice and consistency.

Requirements:

- 5–6 years of experience in content writing, storytelling, or marketing communication.
- Strong proficiency in MS PowerPoint and content visualization.
- Familiarity with AI writing and design tools (ChatGPT, Groc, Canva, Gamma, etc.).
- Excellent command of written English and attention to detail.
